

Mock- up of the Settings Feature

Persona: This person represents Olutosin who is a potential customer for the app.

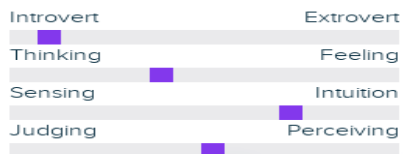

Olutosin Ajayi

"Since im not very tech savvy.I'm looking for a simple software to track my finances."

Age: 56
Work: House Wife
Family: Married with no children
Accessibility :Long-sighted
Location: Lagos,Nigeria
Character: Introveted

Personality

Bio

She has trouble keeping track of her finances and usually ends up going over her budget accidentally. She is long-sighted so she has trouble with reading fonts that are too small. She needs the settings function to be able to customise the app to her preferences.

Frustrations

- When an apps interface is not easy to understand
- Cannot not read fonts that are too small
- When an app is hard to navigate
- When the settings feature does not offer enough customization options.

Goals

- To keep to her budget
- A settings feature that has enough customization options so she can use the app confidently
- A settings feature that is easy to navigate

The screenshot displays a web browser window with the URL `git.cs.bham.ac.uk/lxs213/example/-/boards`. The browser's address bar and tabs are visible at the top. Below the browser window is the GitLab interface. On the left, a sidebar contains a navigation menu with items like 'Project information', 'Repository', 'Issues', 'Boards', 'Merge requests', 'Security & Compliance', 'Deployments', 'Infrastructure', 'Monitor', 'Analytics', and 'Settings'. The 'Boards' section is currently selected. The main content area shows a Kanban board titled 'Leila Shaibu > Example > Issue Boards'. At the top of the board, there is a dropdown menu set to 'Development', a search bar, and buttons for 'Show labels', 'Edit board', and 'Create list'. The board is divided into two columns: 'Open' (containing 9 cards) and 'Closed' (containing 2 cards). The 'Open' column lists cards for 'Personal Information Card' (#3), 'Account Information Card' (#6), 'Notification Preferences Card' (#5), 'Security Card' (#4), 'Delete Account Card' (#11), and 'Log Out Card' (#10). The 'Closed' column lists cards for 'Create a mockup of the settings feature' (#2) and 'Create a Persona for the settings feature' (#1). A 'Collapse sidebar' button is located at the bottom left of the sidebar.
